FAQs

Date Availability, Date Holds, and Tastings

Availability is on a first come first served basis. Your desired date is considered officially booked/reserved once a deposit has been placed. At the time of inquiry, if your desired date is available, we offer a complimentary 72-hour hold while you review all we have to offer. After 72 hours, the hold will expire if a deposit is not placed.

We offer tastings upon request for $25/per person (4 person maximum). For this price you may choose one salad, two entrees, and two side dishes from our event menu to share.

Event Décor and Set Up

We provide black cloth napkins, plates, silverware, and glassware. For seating we offer restaurant tables, booths and bar seating, dessert displays on bar tops, and gift tables using high-tops or bar tops. Bar Verona can seat up to 90 guests utilizing all seating, recommend count for flexibility is 60 guests. Floor plans will be determined with our Events Manager based off your guests count, due 14 days prior to your event.

Décor is welcome but we have a few guidelines we ask you follow; glitter and confetti are not permitted, business décor including furniture and framed artwork may not be removed from walls, guests may use command strips but we ask that nothing is nailed or pinned to our walls/ceilings, and nothing be hung from light fixtures.

We guarantee an hour prior to your event's start time to allow you to come set up. Should you need more time, please work with the Event Manager to determine availability. All décor must be removed and cleaned at the completion of the event. Please understand that the event host is responsible for décor set up and take down. The business assumes no responsibility for property from outside vendors and host will be responsible for any damages.

Outside Food and Beverage

Our guests are allowed to bring desserts from an outside vendor while following two guidelines; the dessert must be prepared in a licensed bakery and all desserts must be labeled free of any form of peanut, tree nut, or sesame including extracts. Please understand that our restaurant is peanut, tree nut, and sesame free and we strictly adhere to this policy to ensure the safety of all guests. Should a guest bring items that contain these products, we will ask that it be removed from the premises immediately (financial compensation will not be provided). Aside from the dessert allowance, outside food and beverage is not permitted. If you bring your own dessert, we will provide cutlery and plate ware. Our cake cutting fee is $25/cake which will be added to the final event bill.

Menu Selections

Chef Lindsey has thoughtfully curated our Events Menu to offer our guest favorites and we are sure your guests will be impressed with any offering you choose! For parties larger than 20 guests, we do require that you make selections from our Events Menu. To best serve you, all private events require prior planning for food and beverage services. Please understand that we are unable to accommodate ala carte (for parties larger than 20 guests) or ordering day of (any size party). For guests with dietary restrictions, please work with our Event Manager to establish proper offerings. While we can accommodate most allergy and dietary restrictions, additional charges may occur. Children pricing will depend on expected guest count. Generally speaking, children under the age of ten may order off of our children's menu or receive 20% off of per person adult pricing. Children over the age of ten will be charged traditional pricing.

All food and beverage selections and final guest count must be established and finalized 14 days prior to the event date.

Third Party Entertainment

We allow for a DJ for our private events. Additional entertainment such as full bands, magicians, face painting, demonstrational presentations, etc will be approved on a case-by-case basis. Please share your plans with our Event Manager so we may ensure that we can accommodate. Generally speaking, we ask that our spaces be utilized for food and beverage services. All third-party vendors must have prior approval by the Event Manager and our business assumes no responsibility for outside services. Please know that we reserve the right to discontinue any outside service should it be uncondusive to our operations. Should any damages occur, the event host will be responsible to compensate for said damages at time of event.
